Denver, CO, December 23, 2009 – NinjaTrader, LLC, announced today that eMiniSchool.com proprietary indicators are now available for the NinjaTrader platform. eMiniSchool.com members can execute trades in Futures, Forex and Equities through NinjaTrader, an industry leading end-to-end trading platform that is supported by all leading market data vendors and a vast world-wide network of supporting brokerages.

eMiniSchool.com is a commercial developer for the NinjaTrader platform offering the proprietary Kill Zone and Turbo Scalp indicator packages for powerful real-time entries and exits. These indicators are used with multiple timeframe NinjaTrader charts to confirm their entry and exit signals so traders can feel confident in executing their orders. eMiniSchool.com specializes in trader education and teaching their indicators through an extensive library of online resources and exclusive mentoring course.

"NinjaTrader's robust, real-time market scanning, charting, market replay and Advanced Trade Management (ATM) technology provides our active traders with the edge needed to capitalize on market opportunities" says, Sean Mckissen, Founder of eMiniSchool.com.
